
Global Security Services[®], Ltd.

Global Security Services, Ltd. is a full service private security, private investigation, and electronic security agency providing all of your law enforcement, investigative, security, armored transportation, and electronic security needs.

Our collective expertise enables us to provide all of the security services a government, business or private citizen may need to address sensitive, complex issues or concerns. Since our inception, we have provided the aforementioned services to a wide range of clientele that include government agencies, lending institutions, and private corporations. Our excellence in service comes from a fundamental belief in our founding principles; duty, honor, and integrity. These principles are at the core of every team-member and enables us to provide the exceptional customer service that is the hallmark of our every endeavor. Evidence of our success is a 2002 BBB Integrity Award.

We provide our staff with nationally recognized and division specific training ranging from advanced electronics to NRA law enforcement firearms to ensure that our personnel know exactly how to provide the absolute best services available without over stepping their boundaries. Lastly, we have supervisors available 24/7 to ensure that the proper course of action is taken with regard to any situation.

Within each division, we have experienced and trained personnel in comparison to lay persons with little or no experience. Our average qualification per employee is more than seven years experience and one year of post-secondary education.
